Come along & beat the winter blues.

Visit Japan with us, without leaving Sale.
Enjoy the fun and fellowship, and dine in style with English food.

To ease registration, please read through the activities we have on offer and start thinking about your choices. You can mark your choices on the programme overleaf to bring with you as a reminder.

Living in Japan

Tim and Miho Walker will talk about their experience of living in Japan and the Japanese people.

Origami

Miho Walker will teach you some origami, and will also share more about life in Japan.

Tokyo 2020 Olympics Trials

Try out for the Olympics with games for all, Japanese themed.

History & Art of the Geisha

Learn of their ancient traditions of art, dance and singing from Mary Lou.

Painting*

Try your own hand at painting. For beginners and experts. There are two follow on sessions if you need more time to complete your masterpiece.

Flower arranging*

Have fun making a Japanese flower arrangement to take home, guided by Shiona Fosh.

Japanese Gardens

Graham Hardman is Honorary Vice-President of the Japanese Garden Society and will share his experience of Japanese Garden design

Experiencing Japan

Ruth Mannell will share her experience of travelling in Japan.

Table Games

Enjoy the fun and competition of favourite table games
